

safe children | stable families | successful lives

Cardinal McCloskey Services (CMS) is a not-for-profit, non-sectarian social service agency founded in 1946 that strives to protect, empower and promote independence for at-risk children and families and those with developmental disabilities through quality community based services. Cardinal McCloskey Services cares for over 4,500 children, 3,000 families and more than 100 individuals with developmental disabilities through 40 different programs at 35 locations throughout the Bronx, East Harlem, Rockland and Westchester Counties.
